

2011 DCHS Awards Dinner

The Dutchess County Historical Society will be holding our annual Awards Dinner on Thursday, November 3 at 6 pm, at the Dutchess Golf and Country Club and would like you to be a part of this special event. We are hoping you will consider attending the dinner and also supporting the event with an advertisement or a sponsorship.

Business of Distinction Award: McCabe & Mack LLP, law firm with over 20 lawyers, one of the oldest law firms in the county, founded by John Mack in 1896

Dutchess Award: Barbara Van Itallie, for her contributions in the areas of history and education, instructor in math at Marist College, former Board member and Vice President of DCHS, leader of the Road Ralleye event at DCHS, also involved with local musical education

Helen Wilkinson Reynolds Award: Dr. Alison Mountz: for her contributions in chronicling the Mexican-American community in Dutchess County as the subject of her Master's thesis. She is a native of Poughkeepsie, a graduate of Poughkeepsie High School (1991), and Dartmouth College (1995). She is now a Ph.D. professor of Geography teaching graduate students (until May at Syracuse Univ, now at a Univ in Canada). She is also the author of a new book and winner of several prestigious prizes.

For further information on how to obtain tickets or be a sponsor contact: dchistorical@verizon.net