

Call for Articles Dutchess County Historical Society Year Book 2011

Topic:

As part of the federal government's "Great Outdoors Initiative" (a national dialogue about improving the outdoor experiences of American citizens), the 2011 Year Book will investigate the history of Dutchess County's outdoor heritage. Articles should explore the history of a special outdoor space in Dutchess County. Outdoor spaces can include rivers, waterways, landscapes, farms, forests, parks, trails, beaches, scenic vistas, or a particular area of wildlife habitat or plant life. America's Great Outdoors Initiative is a national effort to reconnect Americans with outdoor experiences, conservation efforts and the history of special local places.

Deadline for submission is May 1, 2011.

Articles should be in Microsoft Word format between 2,000 and 10,000 words in length. Authors are encouraged to provide illustrations with their text. Electronic submissions of photos or other illustrations are welcome in JPEG format at a minimum of 300 dpi. Images should be accompanied by detailed captions. All permissions to publish images are the responsibility of the author. Please include 3-4 sentences of biographical information for the list of contributors. Acceptance for publication is at the discretion of the editor and the DCHS Publications Committee. Authors should send: 1 double spaced typescript paper copy (please remember to also include photo captions and a 3-4 sentence author biography) and 1 CD-R containing article, captions and biographical information as a MS Word document (please also include JPEG's of illustrations or photos at a minimum of 300 dpi). Please mail to: Year Book Editor, Dutchess County Historical Society, P.O. Box 88, Poughkeepsie, NY 12602.
